NEWPORT, RI MANSION NAMED ONE OF COUNTRIES TOP HOTELS

The Chanler At Cliff Walk Named To Condé Nast Traveler's "Gold List" For 2010

January 11, 2010 (Newport, Rhode Island) – The Chanler, the only hotel located on Newport's famous Cliff Walk, has been selected as one of the best hotels in the world by the readers of Condé Nast Traveler. The world-renowned travel magazine included The Chanler at Cliff Walk in their 16th annual "Gold List," which is the ultimate guide to the greatest properties and cruise lines chosen by more than 25,000 Condé Nast Traveler readers. There were only four hotels in the U.S. to score higher than The Chanler, in the location category, two of them being in Hawaii.

In 2009, Condé Nast Traveler's "Reader's Choice Awards" ranked The Chanler "#4 Small Hotel in the U.S." and in the "Top 100 in the World" with a score of 92.6. The Chanler is a historic, opulent, European boutique hotel steps away from the ocean and a mere mile from downtown. The Chanler offers twenty exquisitely appointed guest rooms; each with its own historically inspired period details from Gothic to Greek Revival.

The award-winning Spiced Pear dining room and ocean-side, outdoor terrace restaurant serves dishes where "the combination of flavors is incredible." The restaurant serves Contemporary American Cuisine and prides itself on using locally grown New England ingredients.

"We are thrilled to be recognized among the top hotels in the U.S and the world by Conde Nast Traveler," said Christine Sullivan, Hotel Manager of The Chanler. "It is such a remarkable way to start a new decade, and we look forward to consistently outdoing ourselves."

Rack rates at The Chanler start at $329.00 per night based on availability. For reservations please call 866.739.5664 or visit www.thechanler.com
