

COMPLETES A MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR RENOVATION.

24,800 SQUARE FEET OF FLEXIBLE SPACE TRANSITIONS A HOTEL INTO A MEETING PLANNERS DREAM IN NEWPORT RHODE ISLAND.

March 17, 2009

The Newport Marriott Hotel, facing Newport Harbor and across the street from many of the shops, attractions, restaurants and clubs in the heart of downtown Newport Rhode Island, is near completion of a stylish multi-million dollar project encompassing all the hotel's function space and foyers. All of the furniture, fixtures, furnishings, and nuances feature contemporary nautical design elements that depict the vibrant, colorful surroundings and dynamic charm of the "City by the Sea".

Perry Kessler, Director of Sales and Marketing, announced that the hotel's re-imaging of nearly 24,800 square feet of flexible function space brilliantly transitions the guest's experience to the rest of the hotel which was also renovated recently. Travelers will voyage from the exciting, multi-dimensional seven story atrium with its soaring sails, to their nautically savvy and luxurious guest rooms. They will meet in cutting edge contemporary, dynamic meeting spaces and when on their own they can enjoy fresh, creative seafood in Fathoms Restaurant with its funky, whimsical sea-sculptures, murals and majestic waterfront views.

The hotel is equipped with the latest technology in its function spaces and in its 317 rooms and suites. The Marriott provides first-class accommodations with concierge services, a comprehensive business center, and an elaborate sundry shop named "The Chandlery", with a Starbucks Cafe kiosk. It also features a two story health club called "the Spa at Long Wharf" which is complete with a game room, indoor pool, sauna, outdoor roof deck, high-tech fitness center and racquet ball courts.

Newport Marriott Hotel boasts having the finest associates in the industry and ranks high in "hospitality" amongst like hotels within Marriott International. From imaginative culinary to skilled event services, from cutting edge technology to luxurious little distinctions that make the difference...., nautical style meets casual sophistication at the Newport Marriott Hotel.
