Little Compton's Only Bed and Breakfast Officially Opens

Innkeeper, Deborah LeLevier, is pleased to announce the official opening of The Edith Pearl Bed and Breakfast.

With the recent closure of Little Compton's other Bed and Breakfasts and The Stone House under renovation, The Edith Pearl is the destination of choice. And what a choice it is!

Conveniently located at 250 West Main Road/ Route 77, Little Compton, RI, The Edith Pearl is a 168-year-old Colonial farmhouse with a colorful history.

Each guest room features a breath-taking, antique bed, from Leonard's New England. Luxurious Serta mattresses, high thread count linens, and beautiful comforters ensure your comfort. Each room offers a comfortable sitting area, natural light, fresh flowers, CD players, reading lights, and more. Views abound from every room.

A full, hot breakfast featuring local products, daily, fresh-picked berries, and great coffee are served in our charming breakfast room.

The Edith Pearl sits on an acre of rolling lawns, graced by ancient, shading maples and beautiful perennial gardens. Peaks of the nearby Sakonnet River are visible from inside and out. Surrounding the property are 200 acres of preserved and working farmland. Local farm stands and a small café are within short walking distance.

Outside enjoy a shaded, wrap around deck with white wicker furniture and a sunny, blue stone patio with teak furniture and comfortable loungers. Area beaches, shops, and delicious restaurants are just a few minutes drive away.

All this and we are PET FRIENDLY!

The Edith Pearl is all about hospitality, beauty, relaxation, and your comfort. Visit us at www.edithpearl.com
